Recipe of the Month: Chipotle-Mango BBQ Chicken

Ingredients

- 1 teaspoon freshly cracked black pepper
- 2 teaspoons kosher salt
- 2 chipotle peppers in adobo, plus 1 tablespoon adobo sauce
- 4 cloves garlic, peeled
- 1 tablespoon canola oil, plus extra for grill
- 2 tablespoons unseasoned rice wine vinegar
- 2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
- 3/4 cup fresh cilantro (loose pack, not chopped, stems and all)
- 1 1/2 cups mango, peeled, pitted and roughly chopped

Directions

1. In a large bowl, combine the ingredients. Mix well.
2. Add the chicken with half of the chipotle-mango sauce to a resealable plastic bag, and marinate for 30 minutes. Transfer to a serving platter and serve with the reserved chipotle-mango sauce.
3. Preheat a grill or grill pan to medium-high heat and brush with oil. Remove the chicken from the marinade and put on the grill.
4. Heat the remaining chipotle-mango sauce over medium heat until thick, stirring often, about 15 minutes. Set some of the simmered sauce aside to serve with the chicken.

What Happens When You Are Injured on Vacation in Myrtle Beach?

A vacation is supposed to be a stress-free break from work and the pressures of everyday life. It’s not meant to be filled with stress caused by medical injuries, painful injuries, and the potential for medical bills.

Unfortunately, accidents and injuries can happen anywhere, and are especially common for people on vacation – even here in Myrtle Beach. In conjunction with the 50th Anniversary of Jebaily Law Firm, we are proud to announce that Ron Jebaily welcomed into the Workers’ Injury Law & Advocacy Group (WILG) Hall of Fame.

The ride this year was dedicated to law enforcement officers and first responders. Police escort guides the cyclists.
