Car Accident Checklist

Even the safest drivers among us can be involved in an auto accident. The better prepared you are, the better you will be able to respond.

To help you to get through the many challenges that can arise after a car crash, Jebaily Law Firm prepared the following checklist... Read more »

Social Security Disability Rule Change Has Advocates Raising a Red Flag

A major rule change took effect in March in the way Social Security disability claims are processed, which has attorneys and advocates who specialize in helping people apply for benefits raising a red flag for their clients.

The change lets administrator law judges weigh evidence in an applicant's file however they see fit, instead of being forced to give the most weight to the opinion of an applicant's doctor. The new rule is meant to simplify a judge's deliberations and put full decision-making power back in their hands, according to the Social Security Administration.

Local and national disability benefit advocates are concerned the change will worsen the administrative backlog or cause people to be wrongly denied for benefits... Read more »

Who Has the Right of Way?

Whether you drive, walk, bike, ride a motorcycle or do all four, knowing who has the right of way at an intersection or other crossing in South Carolina is important. If you know when you are required to yield the right of way, you can reduce your risk of being involved in a crash.

Here's a refresher for who has the right of way... Read more »

Recipe of the Month
Grilled Zucchini Halves with Chopped Tomato-Basil Salsa

Here's a great veggie dish for your next cookout.

Step 1:

- Cooking spray
- 2 medium zucchini, halved lengthwise

Heat a grill pan over medium-high. Coat pan with cooking spray. Add zucchini; cook 4 to 5 minutes on each side.

Step 2:

- 1 cup chopped tomato
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh basil
- 1 tablespoon chopped fresh chives
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 1 teaspoon fresh lemon juice
- 3/8 teaspoon kosher salt
- 1/4 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper

Combine ingredients in a bowl; toss. Spoon salsa evenly over grilled zucchini halves.
