Jebaily Law Firm Celebrates 50th Anniversary

This year marks the Jebaily Law Firm's 50th anniversary. The long-standing and well-respected Jebaily Law Firm has been fighting for South Carolina injury victims since 1969. With more than 100 years of collective legal experience among the firm's five attorneys, the Florence- and Myrtle Beach-based firm has the knowledge, skills, resources, and determination to pursue the outcomes our clients deserve.

Keep reading to learn more about the history, accomplishments and staff of this valued law firm.

Describing your Daily Activities at SSD Hearings

Our Social Security disability lawyers can help you prepare to go before a judge to discuss your day-to-day functioning. Judges tend to ask claimants who are seeking disability benefits how they typically spend their days, and they take that information and use it to make a determination with respect to whether or not their daily routine is in-line with their claimed symptoms and functional limitations.

It will be important to be prepared and seek an expert to help you.

Golf Cart Safety Dos and Don'ts

While many people may not think of golf carts as being dangerous, they certainly can be.

According to the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC), more than 10,000 emergency room visits each year result from golf cart accidents. About 40% of these accidents involve someone falling out of the golf cart. Roughly 10% involve a rollover. In fact, turning at just 11 mph is fast enough to throw passengers out of a golf cart.

This might be a good time to practice good driving skills!

What to Do After a Rental Car Accident

Getting into an accident in a rental car is not all that different from being in a collision in your own car, except for the issue of insurance coverage.

Your first responsibility is to check for injuries, and then to get help for anyone who is injured. Also request that law enforcement comes to the scene.

You're in a strange car, you have an accident, now what?

Recipe of the Month
Raw Corn and Radish Salad with Spicy Lime Dressing

A simple lime dressing flavored with jalapeños and honey accents this popular summer vegetable that is at the height of season. Maybe most crucially though...it can be made without turning on a stove!

Ingredients

- 2 tablespoons fresh lime juice
- 1 small jalapeño, seeded and coarsely chopped
- 1 1/2 teaspoons honey
- 1/4 teaspoon cumin
- 1/4 cup vegetable oil
- Kosher salt and freshly ground pepper
- 4 cups fresh corn kernels (from 4 ears)
- 6 medium radishes, halved and thinly sliced crosswise
- 1/2 cup coarsely chopped flat-leaf parsley
- 1/4 small red onion, thinly sliced

How to Make It

1. In a blender, puree the lime juice, jalapeño, honey and cumin. With the machine on, add the oil. Season with salt and pepper.
2. In a large bowl, toss the corn with the radishes, parsley, red onion and dressing. Season the salad with salt and pepper, transfer to plates and serve.
