Stay Safe this Holiday Season

What are you looking forward to this holiday season? Whether it's getting together with family near or far, enjoying delicious traditional holiday meals or ringing in the new year with your friends or sweetheart, chances are being in a car accident is not part of the plan. The Christmas and New Year's holidays, however, see some of the highest rates of car accidents, many of which result in severe injuries and even fatalities. Fortunately, however, these accidents are preventable. Prepare to protect yourself and your family during holidays.

Enjoy Holiday Cheer Wisely

It's the most festive time of the year with lots of celebrating and social occasions. Many of these will feature alcoholic beverages. Plan ahead and designate a sober driver if you know you'll be drinking or arrange alternative transportation home from a ride service. Don't let friends drive impaired. Be sure also that teens don't have access to alcohol at parties in your home.

Rest Up

Long lists of gifts to be purchased and wrapped, cooking and baking, holiday parties and of course your regular workload can make late nights more frequent at this time of the year. However, fatigued driving can be just as dangerous as driving while intoxicated. Be sure to get enough sleep even if you have to skip something on your list!

Don't Short Cut Safety

Always insist that everyone buckle up even if you're only traveling a couple of miles. The National Highway Traffic Safety Association reports that over half of all car accidents happen within 5 miles of your home. Practice defensive driving and leave yourself plenty of time to get to where you're going since there are likely to be more cars on the road during this busy season.

Avoid Distractions

Although we're all well aware of the distraction that occurs from texting and driving at the holidays another form of distraction is more prevalent. That is the kind when your mind is not on the road because of many preoccupations—such as what to get Grandpa Tim, who will sit next to weird Uncle Al, and should you get your daughter that new phone? Of course, physical distractions such as putting on makeup or fiddling with the radio to find your favorite holiday music are just as dangerous. Stay focused and alert, as many drivers sharing the road with you are likely to be distracted too.

Despite your best attempts, accidents can still happen. If you find yourself a victim of one this holiday season, be sure to contact Jebaily Law. We can help you get the compensation you deserve.

Recipe of the Month Old-Fashioned Vegetable-Barley Soup

Ingredients:

- Cooking spray
- 1 teaspoon olive oil
- 1/2 medium onion, chopped
- 1 medium rib of celery, chopped
- 1 medium garlic clove, minced
- 1 14.5-ounce can no-salt-added diced tomatoes, undrained
- 1 1/2 cups frozen mixed vegetables
- 1 1/2 cups low-sodium vegetable broth
- 1 cup chopped kale
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/4 cup uncooked quick-cooking barley
- 1/2 teaspoon dried basil, crumbled
- 1/2 teaspoon dried oregano, crumbled
- 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- 1 tablespoon plus 1 teaspoon shredded or grated Parmesan cheese

Directions:

1. Lightly spray a large Dutch oven with cooking spray. Add the oil and swirl to coat the bottom. Cook the onion and celery over medium-high heat until golden, about 3 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add the garlic and cook for 10 seconds. Stir in the remaining ingredients except the Parmesan. Bring to a boil over medium-high heat. Reduce the heat and simmer, covered, for 10 to 12 minutes, or until the barley is cooked.
2. Ladle into soup bowls. Sprinkle with the Parmesan.
